

APPENDIX 1: DETAILED SCHEDULE FOR 60-DAY RE-EVALUATION OF CHARLES STREET

NOVEMBER 2002

- November 7th ⇒ distribution of invitation/work plan letter by Deputy Mayor Laurie Schwartz to Charles Street Reconstruction Stakeholders Committee members.
- November 8th ⇒ website debut (CharlesStreet.mdprojects.com)
- November 14th through November 18th ⇒ initial Listening Tour conducted by David Wallace with each of the 6 Stakeholder Groups.
- November 14th ⇒ comprehensive pedestrian counts taken between 31st Street and University Parkway (7:00 AM to 8:00 PM)
- November 21st ⇒ supplemental traffic counts @ Charles Street/ Art Museum Drive and Charles Street/33rd Street intersections.
- November 23rd ⇒ distribution of 1st DRAFT Concept Plan booklet presenting 3 concepts (existing condition, with median, and without median options) to Stakeholders Committee

DECEMBER 2002

- December 3rd through December 6th ⇒ follow-up Listening Tour with each of the 6 Stakeholder Groups to review 1ST DRAFT Concept Plans.
- December 10th ⇒ supplemental pedestrian counts at 29th Street.
- December 12th ⇒ Community Meeting @ University Baptist Church
3501 N. Charles Street (Heaver Hall)

4:30 PM – 6:20 PM	Stakeholders Committee Pre-Meeting
6:20 PM – 7:00 PM	Dinner/Informal Discussions
	COMMUNITY MEETING
7:00 PM – 7:20 PM	Presentation of DRAFT Concept Plans
7:20 PM – 7:40 PM	Presentation By Stakeholders Committee
7:40 PM – 8:45 PM	Receipt of Community Comments
8:45 PM – 10:00 PM	Stakeholders Committee discussed Final Plans
- December 20th ⇒ distribution of 2nd DRAFT of Concept Plan booklet presenting three concepts (existing condition, median with east service drive, and median-only options) to Stakeholders Committee for Final Approval

JANUARY 2003

- January 3rd ⇒ Stakeholders Committee Meeting @ RK&K Engineers (9:00 AM to 11:00 AM) and receipt of final comments on 2nd DRAFT booklet.
- January 7th ⇒ 10:00 AM presentation of Concept Plan to “Project Owners”, Laurie Schwartz and Office of Transportation Director Al Foxx (2 representatives from each stakeholder group are invited).